

Our Herd:

Courtesy Stable has capacity for 12 horses, all privately owned. Our horses, as well as our boarders, vary in breed so it makes for a very diverse group, all happy & healthy. Stop back soon to meet some new additions to the herd.

Meet the Herd:

THE BOYS

Eli

Eli is an 11 Year Old Hanoverian/Thoroughbred Cross. He is schooled in jumping & has competed. His coloring is “Bay”. Bay coloring usually depicts a dark brown body, with black mane & tail. He has 1 white hind sock.

Garth

Garth is new to the herd. He's a 15.3 hand Quarter Horse/TB cross. The white mark down his face is called a stripe. He has been shown in Dressage & Cross Country & usually came home with a ribbon. He is awesome on the trails & is looking for a share-boarder.

Hot Shot

Hot Shot is actually a registered Appaloosa; both his parents are covered with spots. He's one of our favorite lesson horses, his coloring is called bay. His full registered name is "No Spot Hot Shot".

Mystery

A Thoroughbred

Sonny

Sonny is a 14 Year Old, Gelding (Neutered Male). His coloring is Sorrel with a Flaxen mane & tail. The white marking on his face is called a blaze & he has 2 white stockings on his hind legs. His breed is Kentucky Mountain Saddle Horse (KMSH) which is known for its gait & temperament. You'll have to stop by to meet him to see what I mean. He is also registered as a Rocky Mountain Saddle Horse (RMSH).

THE LADIES
